Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement, without obligation, and obtain a refund of all charges paid through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Registration fees and material fees are non-refundable even if student cancels before the first day of the class.

To cancel or withdraw, you must give written notice of cancellation to Jan Albin, School Director, at the School address shown on the top of this application, by mail (properly addressed with postage prepaid), or by hand delivery to the School Director, Registrar or Instructor, or by fax. If sent by mail, your cancellation is deemed received on midnight on the postmark date; otherwise, as of the date and time of hand delivery to one of the above School staff, or as of the date and time the fax is received in the School office. If you cancel by fax, you must call and make sure your fax was received. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form; however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement. If you cancel this agreement as specified above before 9 a.m. of the first day of instruction, the school will refund any money that you paid, less the registration fee, within 30 days after your notice of cancellation is received. If the School cancels the course, it will refund any money you paid, including the registration fee.
